CERTIFICATE LEARNING COURSES

Addiction Counselor

Assist clients in developing skills and behaviors necessary to recover from their addiction or modify their behavior. Work with clients to identify behaviors or situations that interfere with their recovery.

Anger Management Counselor

Help people understand their triggers for anger, develop and practice coping skills, and think, feel, and behave differently in response to anger, so they are calmer and more in control.

Christian Counselor

Christian counselors help people overcome mental health challenges and heal spiritually through a Christian lens. They use evidence-based counseling techniques and biblical principles to help clients Biblically deal with the issues of life.

Conflict Resolution Counselor

Conflict resolution counselors mediate between conflicting parties, helping them find common ground and reach mutually acceptable resolutions.

Domestic Violence Counselors

Domestic violence counseling is a form of therapy that may be beneficial for survivors of domestic abuse.

Marriage Counselor

Marriage counselors support people, including married and unmarried couples, in improving their partnerships and navigating relationship challenges.

Marriage Counselor

Marriage counselors support people, including married and unmarried couples, in improving their partnerships and navigating relationship challenges.

Parenting Counselor

A parenting counselor helps parents gain the knowledge, guidance, and support they need to be successful parents.

Pregnancy Counselor

Pregnancy counselors help people navigate the challenges of pregnancy and parenthood through a lens of faith and biblical principles.

Prison Ministry Counselor

A prison ministry counselor provides spiritual support and guidance to people in prison. They may also offer counseling to help inmates resolve problems and reconcile with their families.

Reentry Counselor

A reentry counselor helps people who have been released from prison or jail transition back into society.

Terminal Illness Counselor

A terminal illness counselor helps patients and their families deal with the emotional and psychological challenges of a terminal illness.

Trauma Counselor

A trauma counselor is a therapist who helps people who have experienced trauma, such as abuse, domestic violence, or natural disasters, to process their experiences and move forward.

Our Certificate Learning Courses are informative, convenient, and highly interactive. We focus on creating courses based upon the needs of Pastors, ministers, counselors, and those who want more information on specific topics. Courses may be taken virtually via Zoom or by independent home study.
