The Christian Ministries Program is designed to develop your abilities and spiritual gifts for leadership and ministries within the church. DBC's Ministry training focuses on God's truth through revelation and illumination in His Word, wisdom and practical insights to help you study God's word and prepare you to teach and share God's word, disciple others, and minister to the specific groups to which you have been called — whether children, youth, adults, families or others.

The Bachelor's Degree in Christian Ministry program will equip you with a foundational understanding of Scripture and how to apply it well to ministry situations. Based on sound biblical understanding, courses will provide you instruction focusing on ministry practice, Christian worship, ministerial ethics, preaching, teaching, and general pastoral ministry working with the church congregation in various ministry positions.
