

[illegible]

The Doctorate degree in Theology is designed to help the student develop a deeper, Biblical basis for understanding God and the theological implications for a Christian worldview, Christian ethics, leadership, maturity, and service. This theology degree will also provide academic training and leadership skills and will find yourself academically competent and spiritually prepared as an informed theologian for work as a pastor, missionary, ministry leader, or in academia.

A total of 60 credit hours (20 classes) above the Master's Degree is required for the Doctorate Degree.
